

Leaf Peeping Route - Approximately 2 hours

- 1) Depart Stuyvesant Plaza and head onto I-87, then immediately leave it and exit onto I-90 East. After a short drive, get off I-90 at Exit 4 and proceed onto Route 85.
- 2) Continue on Route 85 through three roundabouts, then veer to the right at the 4th intersection and continue on 85 toward Slingerlands.
- 3) After traveling through the Helderberg Mountains, there will be a stop where Route 85 and 443 are joined. Take a right and continue on 85/443 until they break apart again; continuing on Route 85 into Rensselaerville.
- 4) At the stop sign in Rensselaerville, take a right onto Route 353; follow until it ends in the hamlet of Livingstonville.
- 5) At the stop in Livingstonville, take a left onto Route 145. This will go through Preston Hollow where there was some ongoing single lane construction. If the light breaks up the group, there'll be time to regroup as there is a 4-way stop where Routes 81 & 145 meet. At the 4-way, continue on Route 145.
- 6) On Route 145, approaching East Dunham, we'll make a quick pit stop at a convenience store/gas station on the left called "The Milk Run". (it's about 1 hour into the drive)
- 7) Continue on Route 145 through East Dunham until it runs into Hwy 23 and proceed to the left on Hwy 23.
- 8) While on Hwy 23, go over the Thruway and Route 9. Get in the left lane on the approach to Route 385 in Catskill (it will be before the VanWinkle Bridge).
- 9) Take a left at the light onto Route 385 (depending on the number of cars, may take at least two light cycles for everyone to get through). It's a fairly long stretch, affording time to regroup before we reach Coxsackie.
- 10) Upon entering Coxsackie, there'll be a stop sign. Take a left to continue on Route 385. There's plenty of shoulder available to regroup and ensure everyone is together.
- 11) Still in Coxsackie, take a right onto Lawrence Street (just before the train overpass) and continue on it as it turns into River Road.
- 12) River Road ends in New Baltimore. Take a right onto Route 144 and continue north.
- 14) Shortly after the first Coeymans sign, take a right onto Westerlo Street which runs into Marina Drive. The address of Yanni's Too is 16 Marina Drive, Ravena, NY.
